

Curriculum VITA: Tax Class and the IRS Voluntary Income Tax Assistance Program
Dexter Woods
Ohio Northern University

This paper discusses specific methods and benefits of interconnecting tax class with the IRS Voluntary Income Tax Assistance Program. In so doing, the paper demonstrates pedagogical applications in active, experiential, and service learning that can enhance all business courses.