Presentation Guidelines

The presentation rooms at Conference Las Vegas will be equipped with notebook computers and video projectors. The notebook computers do not have CD drives. Please bring your presentation on a USB drive. A CD/DVD drive is available upon request for individuals needing to present videos. Internet is not available.

Presentations should be 15 - 20 minutes per paper. This allows for a 20 minute Q & A / discussion period at the end of each session. Please plan accordingly and do not go over 20 minutes for your presentation. Sessions must start on schedule. If presentations go over 20 minutes it will shorten the discussion time available at the end of the session. Your session chair will signal you when you are running out of time.

Session Chair Responsibilities

Session chairs are responsible for starting their session on time, having all presenters introduce themselves to each other and the other attendees of the session, holding each presenter to a fifteen-minute presentation, leading a twenty-minute discussion session after all presentations, and adjourning the session on time. Please cooperate with session chairs and help them keep your session on schedule. Session chairs are listed by session in the above presentation schedule.

Call for Papers - Upcoming AABRI Conferences

You are invited to submit your manuscripts, works in progress, or abstracts for presentation four academic conferences AABRI is hosting during the 2013-2014 academic year. Along with the Las Vegas conference we have conferences scheduled at the following locations and dates:

Orlando - January 1 - 3, 2015

www.aabri.com/OC2015.html

Location - Embassy Suites International Drive South
Registration Deadline - December 5, 2014

Savannah - March 26 – 28, 2015

www.aabri.com/SC2015.html

Location – Inn on Ellis Square, Bay Street, Savannah
Registration Deadline – March 1, 2015

AABRI conferences provide authors the opportunity to present your papers, publish them in the conference proceedings and share them with colleagues worldwide.

All completed manuscripts presented at AABRI conferences are automatically submitted for review by AABRI reviewers for possible publication in one of our Cabell's-listed academic journals (review fee waived, normal publication fees apply if accepted).

See the individual conference websites for complete information on each conference.

Academic and Business Research Institute Journals

The Academic and Business Research Institute supports the research and publication needs of business and education faculty. AABRI journals accept submissions in education, ethics, technology and all business fields. Click on the Journals link on the <http://www.aabri.com> website to see which of our journals serves your publication needs or click below to access the individual journals directly.

Academic and Business Research Institute (AABRI) journals are part of the ProQuest Index databases. ProQuest is one of the most-used, premium online information resources for academic research. This milestone achievement recognizes the quality of manuscripts submitted by our authors and provides access to AABRI authors' research for tens of thousands of ProQuest users in institutions worldwide.

Along with ProQuest, AABRI journals are listed in EBSCOHost, the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ), Index Copernicus, and Cabell's Directory of Publishing Opportunities.

AABRI publishes the following seventeen peer-reviewed, Cabell's listed journals:

- Journal of Academic and Business Ethics
- Journal of Business Behavioral Studies

Journal Submission of Conference Papers

Conference proceedings of Academic and Business Research Institute conferences are not copyrighted. Copyright for the manuscripts in the proceedings is owned by the individual authors of the papers. AABRI understands that it is the intent of most conference participants to use the conference as a means to get constructive criticism of their research so it may be improved to journal-publication quality. AABRI conference participants are free to submit their manuscripts for journal publication without copyright concerns.

All completed manuscripts presented at Academic and Business Research Institute conferences are automatically submitted for review by AABRI reviewers for possible publication in one of our Cabell's-listed academic journals (review fee waived, normal publication fees apply if accepted). To be eligible for automatic review manuscripts must be original and meet AABRI journal submission formatting requirements. AABRI will determine which of our journals is the most appropriate for conference submissions in accordance with the conference track of the paper/presentation submitted. If you do not want your paper submitted for review please email us at editorial.staff@aabri.com.

Additionally, we invite all Conference Las Vegas 2014 participants to submit additional completed manuscripts to one of our academic journals. As a special incentive for registered Las Vegas conference participants, we are waiving the journal review fee for conference participants subject to the following conditions:

- The conference participant must be the author or coauthor of the manuscript.
- Only one additional no-review-fee submission per conference participant.
- Normal publication fees apply.
- Manuscripts must be original and meet AABRI journal submission formatting requirements
- Use your conference registration number (LV14XXX) as your receipt number on the AABRI Journal Manuscript Submission Form. Only one manuscript per conference registration number.

AABRI Journal Submission Formatting Guidelines

Submissions to AABRI journals must comply with the following submission formatting guidelines. Authors are expected to review their manuscripts for compliance prior to submission. While minor areas of noncompliance will be corrected by the editorial staff, manuscripts not predominantly meeting the Submission Formatting Guidelines will be returned to the author for revision and resubmission:

1. Files must be submitted in Microsoft Word or RTF format.
2. All manuscripts must be single-spaced.
3. The title must be bold, black, 16 point Times New Roman font, maximum of 12 words, single spaced, and centered on the top line(s) of the title page only. Capitalize only the first word of the title, acronyms and proper nouns in the title.
4. The remainder of the manuscript must be black 12 point Times New Roman font and left aligned.
5. List all authors with their organizational affiliations on the title page immediately following the title. Author information as follows (Centered, 12 point font, not bolded - note no email addresses or other contact information are included):

Author 1 name
Author 1 organization

Author 2 name
Author 2 organization

6. DO NOT LIST AUTHORS ANYWHERE ELSE IN THE MANUSCRIPT. Manuscripts are blind reviewed. Manuscripts are assigned a tracking number and title pages are separated from manuscripts before they are sent to the reviewers.
7. All manuscripts must include a maximum 250 word abstract on the title page immediately following the author(s)' names. Do not bold or italicize abstract.
8. Add a list of 5-6 keywords one line below the abstract. Skip one line after the abstract then begin with Keywords: then list the keywords on the same line, separated by commas. DO NOT BOLD.
9. Start the introduction on the page following the title page.
10. Margins must be 1 inch all around on all pages. THIS INCLUDES ALL TABLES, GRAPHS, and FIGURES.
11. Manuscripts must be written in third person. Do not use I, we, me, our, etc.
12. Include a right-aligned running footer with the first 3 or 4 words of the title starting on the title page. Footer must be in 12 point Times New Roman font. DO NOT USE ITALICS. DO NOT NUMBER PAGES.
13. Left align and bold all section headers and subheaders . Leave one line before and one line after section headers and subheaders. Section headers should be all caps. Section sub headers should be mixed case.
14. Do not use bold text anywhere else in the manuscript. Do not use italics anywhere in the document except in the reference list according to APA formatting requirements.
15. Indent paragraphs .5 inches, do not leave a line between paragraphs. This includes the abstract.
16. APA formatting is preferred for citations and references. However, any accepted academic formatting style (MLA, Turabian, Chicago etc.) is acceptable. Regardless of the formatting style used, a bibliography/reference list is required at the end of the manuscript. DO NOT MIX FORMATTING STYLES IN THE TEXT. DO NOT USE ENDNOTES.
17. Manuscripts must be adequately cited and referenced using academically-appropriate sources. Papers not copiously cited and referenced are not acceptable for publication. This includes case studies.
18. All graphics, charts and tables must be in an appendix at the end of the manuscript and referenced in the text.. State "as indicated in Table 1 (Appendix)". Do not state "Insert Table 1 Here".

19. All pages must be in portrait orientation in the document. If graphs or pictures are too wide for portrait orientation the author must resize or rotate 90 degrees.
20. Maximum standard manuscript length is 40 pages including reference list and appendices. To submit a manuscript greater than 40 pages for review, please contact the editorial.staff@aabri.com prior to submission.
21. Maximum file size is 1/2 megabyte. Please limit the size and number of graphics imbedded in your manuscript.
22. All papers must be original and not previously published documents. Papers published in conference proceedings are acceptable if the proceedings are not copyrighted or a copyright release is provided by the author(s).
23. Prior to publication, papers will be submitted to a plagiarism detection website to verify authenticity. Papers exceeding 10% non-original content (excluding quotes and bibliography) will be returned to the author for revision and resubmission.
24. As a condition of acceptance of a submission in consideration for publication in an AABRI journal, all submitting authors agree to become reviewers on two papers submitted by other authors for publication consideration.
25. AABRI will not publish papers containing profanity, racially or ethnically degrading statements, sexual content, political endorsements or criticisms, religious endorsements or criticisms, or personal attacks on any individual or organization.
26. AABRI reserves the absolute right to refuse acceptance for review of any submission without cause.
27. AABRI reserves the absolute right to refuse publication of any reviewed submission without cause.

Please check for updated Submissions Procedures found on the www.aabri.com website prior to submitting manuscripts.
