

Security Measures Awareness and Ecommerce

Anil Gurung
College of Business
Marshall University

Abstract

Security concerns of the users have identified as one of the hindrances in the growth of e-commerce since risk perception of the users increase. Understanding the consequences of security concerns and its relationship with risk perceptions may help in finding solutions to this problem. Internet users can use different strategies to protect their privacy so that they become confident in taking part in ecommerce transactions.