Journal Submission of Conference Papers

Conference proceedings of Academic and Business Research Institute conferences are not copyrighted. Copyright for the manuscripts in the proceedings is owned by the individual authors of the papers. AABRI understands that it is the intent of most conference participants to use the conference as a means to get constructive criticism of their research so it may be improved to journal-publication quality. AABRI conference participants are free to submit their manuscripts for journal publication without copyright concerns.

We invite all Conference Orlando participants to submit their manuscripts to one of our academic journals. As a special incentive for registered conference participants, we are waiving the journal review fee for conference participants subject to the following conditions:

- The conference participant must be the author or coauthor of the manuscript.
- Only one no-review-fee submission per conference participant.
- Normal publication fees apply.
- Manuscripts must meet AABRI journal submission formatting requirements (below). Manuscripts not meeting these requirements will be returned without review.
- Use your conference registration number (OC13XXX) as your receipt number on the AABRI Journal Manuscript Submission Form. Submissions not including the registration number will not be reviewed. Only one manuscript per conference registration number.
- Expires ninety days from the end of the conference.

AABRI Journal Submission Formatting Requirements

All papers submitted to all journals must meet the following requirements. Please check each bullet point as you review your manuscript prior to submission :

- Files must be submitted in Microsoft Word or RTF format.
- All manuscripts must be single-spaced.
- The title must be bold, black, 16 point Arial font, maximum of 12 words, single spaced, and centered on the top line(s) of the title page only.
- The remainder of the manuscript must be black 12 point Arial font.
- List all authors with their organizational affiliations and email addresses on the title page immediately following the title. Center author information as follows:

Author 1 name
Author 1 organization

Author 2 name
Author 2 organization

- DO NOT LIST AUTHORS ANYWHERE ELSE IN THE MANUSCRIPT. Manuscripts are double-blind reviewed. Title pages are separated from manuscripts before they are sent to the reviewers.
- All manuscripts must include a maximum 250 word abstract on the title page immediately following the author(s)' names.
- Add a list of 5-6 keywords one line below the abstract. Begin with Keywords: then list the keywords on the same line, separated by commas.
- Start the introduction on the page following the title page.
- Margins must be 1 inch all around on all pages. THIS INCLUDES ALL TABLES, GRAPHS, and FIGURES.
- Do not number pages; do not date journal submissions.
- Include a left-aligned running footer with the first 3 or 4 words of the title starting on the title page. Footer must be in 12 point Arial font. DO NOT USE ITALICS.
- Left align and bold all section headers and subheaders . Leave one line before and one line after section headers and subheaders.
- Do not use bold text anywhere else in the manuscript. Do not use italics anywhere in the document except in the reference list according to APA formatting requirements.
- Indent paragraphs .5 inches; do not leave a line between paragraphs.
- APA formatting is preferred for citations and references. However, any accepted academic formatting style (MLA, Turabian, Chicago etc.) is acceptable

- Manuscripts must be adequately cited and referenced using academically-appropriate sources. Papers not cited and referenced are not acceptable for publication.
- All graphics, charts and tables must be imbedded in the manuscript, not at the end of the manuscript.
- All pages must be in portrait orientation in the document. If graphs or pictures are too wide for portrait orientation please resize or rotate 90 degrees.
- Maximum manuscript length is 40 pages including reference list and appendices.
- Maximum file size is 1/2 megabyte. Please limit the size and number of graphics imbedded in your manuscript.
- All papers must be original and not previously published documents. Papers published in conference proceedings are acceptable if the proceedings are not copyrighted or a copyright release is provided by the author(s).
- Prior to publication, all papers will be submitted to a plagiarism detection website to verify authenticity. Papers exceeding 5% non-original content (excluding quotes and bibliography) will be returned to the author for revision and resubmission. If this type of website is available to you, please check your manuscript prior to submission.
- As a condition of acceptance of a submission in consideration for publication in an AABRI journal, all submitting authors agree to become reviewers on two papers submitted by other authors for publication consideration.
- AABRI will not publish papers containing profanity, racially or ethnically degrading statements, sexual content, political endorsements or criticisms, religious endorsements or criticisms, or personal attacks on any individual or organization.
- AABRI reserves the absolute right to refuse acceptance for review of any submission without cause.
- AABRI reserves the absolute right to refuse publication of any reviewed submission without cause.

Please review the Submissions Procedures and Submission Requirements found on the www.aabri.com website prior to submitting manuscripts for updated information.
