Journal Submission of Conference Papers

Conference proceedings of Academic and Business Research Institute conferences are not copyrighted. Copyright for the manuscripts in the proceedings is owned by the individual authors of the papers. AABRI understands that it is the intent of most conference participants to use the conference as a means to get constructive criticism of their research so it may be improved to journal-publication quality. AABRI conference participants are free to submit their manuscripts for journal publication without copyright concerns.

On the registration form all participants chose whether to have their papers automatically submitted for journal review. If this was selected, completed manuscripts presented at Academic and Business Research Institute conferences are automatically submitted for review by AABRI reviewers for possible publication in one of our academic journals (review fee waived, normal publication fees apply if accepted). To be eligible for automatic review manuscripts must be original and meet AABRI journal submission formatting requirements. AABRI will determine which of our journals is the most appropriate for conference submissions in accordance with the conference track of the paper/presentation submitted.

Additionally, all conference participants who did not submit a completed manuscript to the conference or did not chose automatic review may submit their manuscripts when completed to one of our academic journals (review fee waived, normal publication fees apply if accepted) subject to the following conditions:

- The conference participant must be the author or coauthor of the manuscript.
- Normal publication fees apply.
- Manuscripts must meet AABRI journal submission formatting requirements (below). Manuscripts not meeting these requirements will be returned without review.
- Use your conference registration number (OC16XXX) as your receipt number on the AABRI Journal Manuscript Submission Form. Submissions not including the registration number will not be reviewed. Only one manuscript per conference registration number.

- Maximum standard manuscript length is 40 pages including reference list and appendices. To submit a manuscript greater than 40 pages for review, please contact the editorial.staff@aabri.com prior to submission.
- Maximum file size is 1 megabyte. Please limit the size and number of graphics imbedded in your manuscript. Files exceeding 1 megabyte are subject to a publishing fee surcharge.
- All papers must be original and not previously published documents. Papers published in conference proceedings are acceptable if the proceedings are not copyrighted or a copyright release is provided by the author(s).
- Effective August 2012, all papers will be submitted to an online plagiarism detection website to verify authenticity. Papers greater than 10% non-original are subject to being returned to the author for revision and resubmission. Papers are expected to have an originality index of less than 10% non-original. Papers in the yellow or red level (excluding quotes and bibliography) will be returned to the author for revision and resubmission. Please see the Plagiarism section on the Publication Policy page.
- As a condition of acceptance of a submission in consideration for publication in an AABRI journal, all submitting authors agree to become reviewers on two papers submitted by other authors for publication consideration and to respond to review requests with comments within 30 days of receipt of such request.
- AABRI will not publish papers containing profanity, racially or ethnically degrading statements, sexual content, political endorsements or criticisms, religious endorsements or criticisms, or personal attacks on any individual or organization.
- AABRI reserves the absolute right to refuse publication of any reviewed submission without cause. ABRI reserves the right to remove from publication any previously accepted and published submission without cause.

Please review the Submissions Procedures and Submission Requirements found on the www.aabri.com website prior to submitting manuscripts for updated information.
