

SC24027/SC24028

Accessibility to services for PK-12 students with disabilities in rural communities

Stephanie Bain
Texas A & M University, Kingsville

Steve Bain
Texas A & M University, Kingsville

Abstract

Historically, students with disabilities in rural communities have not had the same access to services when compared to urban areas. With previous factors including lack of certified personal, lack of transportation as well as familial economic status, this session looks at how needs are being met for students with disabilities in rural communities today.